Chapter 1; General Members Meeting

(Henceforth be known as GMM)

(In addition to the statutes, articles 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19)

Voting rights

Article 1 Having the right to vote at a GMM:

1. All members present at the GMM.
2. All members entitled to vote who cast a proxy vote.

Article 2 Proxy votes can only be cast if:

1. The proxy holder can provide written proof of the proxy for the vote.
2. The authorised representative complies with the stated paragraph 1.1.
3. The proposal is put to the vote without amendment.
4. Each member present can cast a proxy vote for only one member who is not present.

Rules of procedure

Article 3 Each member present at the GMM may, with the support of at least two other members present at the GMM, put a point of order regarding the course of events at the GMM to the vote.

Opposing candidates

Article 4

1. In the case that there is an election or appointment of board members and/or members on the agenda, members can report as opposing candidates until the moment of the opening of the vote.
2. The Chair will announce any opposing candidates at the opening of the vote.

Amendments

Article 5

1. Each member present at the GMM may, with the support of at least two other members present at the GMM, submit amendments to the current agenda item.
2. The Chair will put the submitted amendments to a vote before the original proposal.
3. In the case that multiple amendments have been submitted on (a part of) a proposal, these will be put to the vote in order of urgency; the most far-reaching first.

Explanation of vote

Article 6 Before a vote is taken, the Chair gives each member who wishes to make use of this the opportunity to make a voting statement. This should be short and to the point.

Voting

Article 7 The vote is taken immediately after the voting statement.

Article 8 Voting is by show of hands, unless:

1. People are voted on; in this case a vote is taken in writing.

2. It was decided on a point of order to vote by roll call or in writing.
3. At least three members present have doubts about the result of a show of hands; then there will be a revote by roll call.

Polling station

- Article 9
1. The votes are counted by the secretary and by at least one other Board member, not being the Chair of the meeting, independently of each other.
 2. The GMM may, by point of order, set up a polling station from its midst of at least three members, which will perform the counting of the votes.

Suspension

- Article 10 The Board has the right to suspend the meeting for a maximum of half an hour.

Adjournment

- Article 11 The meeting is only adjourned on a point of order or by force majeure.

Minutes

- Article 12 After approval at the GMM, the minutes are available for inspection at the secretary.

Chapter 2; Board of Student Volleyball Association WaHo

(Henceforth be known as the Board)

Goal

Article 1 The Board aims to keep student volleyball club WaHo running.

It tries to achieve this goal by:

Article 2 In principle, to meet every two weeks.

Article 3 Solving problems that arise within WaHo.

Article 4 Maintaining contact with:

1. The Dutch Volleyball Federation (Nevobo).
2. SWU “Thymos”.
3. Members
4. Sports Centre the Bongerd

Article 5 Taking care of signing up the teams at the Nevobo.

Article 6 The timely announcement of the training schedule.

Article 7 To ensure that things run smoothly during home games and training.

Article 8 Keeping an overview, supporting, and motivating of the WaHo committees.

Article 9 Members of the board are eligible to a volunteer compensation equal to one year of contribution.

Composition

Article 10 The Board, in principle, is made up of six members, being: Chair, Secretary, Treasurer, Commissioner of Technical Affairs Gents, Commissioner of Technical Affairs Ladies, and the Match Secretary.

1. The Chair is the main point of contact of the association. They have a managerial position during the Board meetings and GMM’s at which they ensure a smooth course. They keep up the committee file of WaHo.
2. The Secretary takes minutes during Board meetings and GMM’s after which they will work out these minutes. They keep up the membership administration, compile the monthly newsletter and send this to all the members.
3. The Treasurer makes the yearly budget and settlement for WaHo and they ensure all payments for WaHo are tracked. Besides that, the treasurer is also the vice-Chair.
4. The Commissioners of Technical Affairs ensure that the team division is made correctly and on time. They have contact with aspiring members and ensure that they obtain the necessary forms to register when they desire this. They have contact with WaHo’s trainers and are responsible for making the training schedule for the teams. They keep the contact between SWU “Thymos” and Sports Centre the Bongerd and take care of the purchasing of new materials when deemed necessary.
5. The Match Secretary maintains contact between WaHo and the Nevobo. They ensure that WaHo has enough, and qualified, referees during home matches. They ensure WaHo has enough regional referees when this is expected. They make the match schedule for WaHo and arrange match displacements. They organise a referee course at least once a year. The match secretary also organises the course of events around Nevobo matches.

- Article 11
1. Candidates for a function within the Board have to register with the current Board.
 2. The Board will announce the candidates for a function within the Board at the same time as the announcement for the next GMM.
- Article 12
- New Board members will enter the Board at the next GMM of WaHo.
- Article 13
- The Board members are elected for a year. After a year they must be re-elected.
- Article 14
1. Board members cannot take a place in committees in WaHo; except for the Commissioner of Technical Affairs in the Technical Committee and the Treasurer in the Shirtcie. The Commissioner of Technical Affairs that is in the second half of their board year, is the Chair of the Technical Committee. In their first half year the Commissioner supports the Chair of the Technical Committee. They will act as the secretary of the Technical Committee and keep administration up to date. The Treasurer is however not a full committee member but offers active support to the Shirtcie.
 2. Every Board member has one or more committees under their care where they will keep the overview, ask for updates every 2 weeks and preferably join meetings regularly.
- Article 15
1. The Board organises a GMM in October and March.
 2. The Board takes accountability during the GMM.
- Article 16
- The board will adhere to the WaHo privacy statement.

Chapter 3; Contribution

Article 1 Every year during the presentation of the budget at the GMM in October, the Treasurer sets the association contribution. Every member is obliged to pay the association contribution.

Article 2 In addition to the association contribution, all competition playing members pay Nevobo contribution. The Nevobo contribution consists of an individual registration fee and team costs.

Article 3 All competition playing teams pay the team costs that teams playing in the first class and lower pay. The team costs for teams playing promotion class and up are higher. These competition teams pay an additional 50% of the difference between the team costs for teams playing promotion class and higher and the team costs for teams playing in the first class and lower.

Article 4 A member who joins or leaves during the season pays a reduced contribution fee respective to the amount of months the player plays volleyball in the association.

1. The board retains the right to decide whether or not a reason of absence is sufficient to refund contribution. Valid reasons include, but are not limited to: long-term sickness and/or injury, studying abroad, or leaving the association with prior notice.

Changing contribution

Article 5 If the association contribution is adjusted, the Treasurer explains why the contribution will be increased/decreased.

Voting

Article 6 Voting on the approval of the association contribution happens in a way in accordance with articles 1, 2, 6, 7, 8 and 9 of the internal regulations of the general members meeting and as described in article 17 of the statutes.

Article 7 Contribution and other costs are compulsorily debited to members by means of direct debit. The contribution will be debited before the GMM in October.

Article 8 In the event that the contribution is not approved during the vote during the GMM, as referred to in Chapter 3 Contribution, the difference between the already paid contribution and the newly voted contribution will be transferred back to the members.

Chapter 4; General conditions

Article 1 Every match playing member is obliged to complete the Nevobo game rules test (spelregeltoets), provided by the Board.

Article 2 All members should be in the possession of yearly student sports rights

Referees

Article 3 Every competition team will deliver at least two referees for refereeing home matches of the first class and lower.

Article 4 WaHo will provide course material.

Article 5 Teams playing promotion class or higher are obliged to put forward at least one person as a regional referee. Rules of the Nevobo regarding referees will be adhered to.

Article 6 WaHo will support the regional referees in the training by:

1. Timely registration of the regional referee at the training.
2. Keeping contact with the Nevobo about the progress of the training.

Article 7 When the training to become a regional referee is not successfully completed and there are (financial) consequences, a suitable solution will be sought after a conversation with the Nevobo, the Board and that person in training.

Training-only members

Article 8 There is a possibility, according to the insight of the TC, to appoint training-only members to competition playing teams. A maximum of 14 training members per competition playing team is allowed at a given point throughout the year.

Article 9 Current training-only players who do not want to play in competition in the future can, if desired by the team, stay as training-only players. After a maximum of 1 year, the TC will evaluate if it is desired to keep that person as a training-only player or if the room has to be made for a recreational member or someone on the waiting list who can and wants to play competition at the level of that team.

Article 10 New members that have the ambition to play matches for WaHo have an advantage in being a training-only member compared to new members that don't want to play matches for WaHo. The TC can deviate from this when applicable.

Behaviour of members

Article 11 Every WaHo member, trainer, referee or official of WaHo must adhere to the code of conduct established by the NOC*NSF.

Article 12 In case of violation of the rules of conduct described in Article 11, sanctions may be imposed on the offending member. The Board determines the most appropriate sanction for each situation, if necessary in consultation with other parties involved. Possible sanctions may include; warning, exclusion from matches or activities, suspension for an indefinite or definite period, expulsion from membership.

Article 13 WaHo reserves the right to give a member a warning substantiated with good argumentation, when it is apparent that this member does not add enough to

- the team or is structurally absent. This will happen through the TC by means of a personal conversation.
- Article 14 WaHo reserves the right to unsubscribe a member when the behaviour of that member does not change after a warning from the category of Article 13. This always happens in consultation with the TC, the captain, the trainer(s) and the member concerned.
- PhD
- Article 15 1. Current members starting or already working on a PhD will be allowed to remain a member of WaHo.
2. People working on a PhD who aspire to become part of WaHo, can only become a member if the TC finds these spots not able to be filled with BSc/MSc students.
- Graduates
- Article 16 Current members of WaHo who have graduated or have stopped their study program not including PhD'ers have the right to remain a member of WaHo for the maximum of one year. After one year, this right expires and they are not allowed to stay a member of WaHo.
- Article 17 All student trainers who are not members of WaHo can participate in WaHo activities by paying 10 euros per year to the association as compensation.
- Cup matches
- Article 18 1. Only the highest ladies- and gents team, who have an ambition to participate in the cup matches, can subscribe for this.
2. The registration fee will be paid by WaHo.
- Materials
- Article 19 1. Members are responsible for the association's materials in their possession. These materials include shirts, shirt bags, balls, ball bags and other borrowed materials, such as a volleyball net.
2. In the event of damage or loss of these materials, compensation will be instituted, depending on the value of the material in question. This compensation can be imposed on one member or the entire team, depending on the situation and is debited by the Treasurer after consultation with the Board and the relevant member/team.
- Committee members
- Article 20 1. Committee members are expected to make place for new members after being in a committee for two years. If there is no replacement, the committee members may stay for at least until the next GMM.
2. Interested members of a committee can register with the relevant committee and/or the current Board. The current committee members must report new members to the Board for the next GMM.
3. New committee candidates will be made official members of the committee at the next GMM of WaHo.
4. Exceptions to paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 can be found in the sections of the relevant committees.
